NEWS RELEASE

JULY 18, 2014 – 3:00 P.M.

I have been authorized to release the following statement of the Sandusky family in response to the remarks made by Matt Sandusky in last night's Oprah Winfrey interview:

"Our family is supportive of our father/husband and hope that truth and justice will prevail as we know untruths have been spoken, at the trial and since then on TV. Some people want us to speak. Others don't. When we have tried to speak and share our side of the story, we are called liars and delusional. We are not in denial. The story we share is true and honest and what we lived. We saw no abuse ever take place and never saw or heard of any indication that anything inappropriate was ever occurring.

This is a legal situation and only the "justice" system can get our father/husband out of prison. Going on every news program and sharing our story will not get him out; if it could we would have already shared this story with the world. Our mom has already said what can be said; few believe her, most do not.

Attacking Matt will only provoke him and then who knows what he'll say about our family. Some of us have lost jobs, some are job searching, all of us are trying to live the best lives we can and none of us want to be singled out and ridiculed; friends lost, more job loss....we cannot afford any more pain."
